

George Parrill appointed to Bullion Management Group Inc. Board of Directors

Markham, ON, December 23, 2015 – Bullion Management Group Inc. is pleased to announce the recent appointment of George Parrill to their Board of Directors.

After forty-two years with The Bank of Nova Scotia, George retired holding the position of Director of ScotiaMocatta. His area of expertise included thirty-three years with Scotiabank's bullion team. During his distinguished tenure, he specialized in commodities, risk and liquidity management specializing in bullion. He also managed the trading desk. In addition, he worked with mining companies, central banks, mutual funds, investor clients and media, and oversaw the needs of Scotiabank's branch network as it related to bullion products.

George advises on issues related to precious metals storage and custodial agreements for both BMG BullionBars™ program and BMG Funds.

About BMG

Founded in 2002, BMG is a dedicated guardian of physical bullion. BMG is based in Markham, Ontario, Canada, with offices in multiple countries including Panama and the United Kingdom. The company offers a wide range of physical bullion products designed for portfolio diversification and wealth preservation. BMG bullion products are stored on an allocated and insured basis within LBMA-member vaults.

BMG was the first precious metals bullion management company in Canada to become an Associate Member of the LBMA, an honour it shares with the Royal Canadian Mint, the Crown Corporation that produces Canada's currency. This validation and endorsement is only bestowed upon firms that meet the LBMA's rigorous industry standards on refining, reliable trading and Good Delivery practices. BMG is also an associate member of the Responsible Investment Association (RIA).
