- to fully understand clients' investment needs and objectives in order to manage clients' investment portfolios;
- to verify clients' identity and protect against fraud;
- to establish custody accounts that clients' have requested for the safekeeping of the securities that we manage;
- to comply with the regulatory obligations of the securities industry; and
- to comply with the Canada Revenue Agency's ("CRA") income reporting requirements.

We limit the information we collect to what we need for these purposes, and we use it only for these purposes.

In order to provide our products and services to clients we may provide information to other persons:

- where we have client consent;
- where the other parties are agents or suppliers who assist us in serving our clients (e.g. custodians); or
- where we are required or permitted to do so by law (e.g. CRA).

We are required to advise clients that we will be disclosing client name, address and details of pooled fund purchases to the applicable provincial securities commissions. This information is collected indirectly by the various securities commissions under the authority granted to them in securities legislation for the purposes of the administration and enforcement of the securities legislation. We monitor and review our procedures and security measures regularly to ensure that they are being properly administered and that they remain effective and appropriate.
